A message to our valued clients and friends.

Like you, we are closely monitoring the Coronavirus Disease 2019 (Covid-19) Situation. Of paramount importance is the health and safety of you and other visitors to our office, as well as the health and safety of our attorneys and staff.

At this time, our office will remain open but we will be taking steps to lower the risk of exposure for clients and staff. As you can imagine, this will be a delicate balance between pressing and important legal situations and the protection of the health and safety of all involved.

If you have concerns or if you are not feeling well, please contact our office to reschedule your appointment. We value you as clients and wish to do our best to meet your needs. If there is a pressing issue, please make us aware and we will do our best to provide alternatives for you, including telephone conferences or consultations and working with you to have documents executed at your location.

Finally, if you are sick (whether or not from Covid-19), are under quarantine, have been exposed to someone within the past two weeks who may have contracted Covid-19 or have travelled within the past two weeks to a location with an active Covid-19 outbreak, we will reschedule any in-person meeting to a later date, or we would be happy to conduct such meeting by phone. If you are at a higher risk of illness from Covid-19, please consider changing in-person meetings to a phone conference, if possible.

In the event of the hopefully unlikely need to close our office in the interest of public safety, our attorneys have the ability to work remotely and will be able to stay in contact with you and meet your legal needs, to the extent our abilities are not affected by public health declarations, closure of public buildings including courthouses, and other unanticipated situations.

As we manage the daily changes to this situation, communication is key. We will do our best to update you and provide guidance but we also ask that you keep us informed of your concerns, so that we may respond in a timely manner to the best of our ability.

Thank you again for being valued clients and friends. Please contact us if you would like to discuss this in more detail.
